

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF OHIO
EASTERN DIVISION

PHILIP J. CHARVAT,

Plaintiff,

v.

AUGEO AFFINITY MARKETING, INC., et al.,

Defendants.

Case No. 2:14-cv-376

JUDGE GREGORY L. FROST

Magistrate Judge Elizabeth P. Deavers

ORDER

This matter is before the Court for consideration of Plaintiff's motion for class certification and to stay briefing pending completion of discovery (ECF No. 2) and Defendant's response memorandum (ECF No. 18). In his filing, Plaintiff asks the Court to stay briefing on the class certification motion, which also involves staying consideration of the class representative and class counsel appointments. Plaintiff seeks to conduct discovery in order to support and supplement its motion. Defendant does not oppose delaying briefing and the decision on class certification, but asserts that Plaintiff has erroneously named it as the defendant. Defendant also contends that class certification is premature.

The Court GRANTS the request for a stay and will hold the class certification motion in abeyance during the course of limited discovery. Because it is likely that this discovery will necessitate supplementation of the pending motion, the Clerk shall administratively terminate the motion on the docket; this termination does not mean that the motion is not technically still pending, but is only a housekeeping designation on the docket during the period of the delayed ruling on the motion.

At the August 7, 2014 preliminary pretrial conference, the Magistrate Judge shall schedule class-related discovery and set a date by which Plaintiff shall file either a revised, second motion for class certification or, if no supplementation is necessary, a notice informing the Court that it should re-activate the previously filed motion for class certification. Upon the filing of either a second motion or the notice, the undersigned will set a merits briefing schedule on the relevant motion.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
